Stuttgart – Charmingly situated in the heart of one of Germany's largest wine-growing regions, this vibrant metropolis fascinates visitors from all over the world. The state capital of Baden-Wuerttemberg delights tourists not only by virtue of its magnificent panorama, its impressive gardens and parks, its fine squares, splendid palaces and buildings in a wide range of architectural styles, but also by its cultural diversity. Visit the medieval Old Palace - with its cloistered courtyard, the palace reflects the splendor of the former ducal town. Just around the corner, the magnificent baroque building of the New Palace and its square are in the heart of the city and popular meeting places. Located just outside the Daimler-Chrysler plant, the museum brings over 110 years of innovative automotive history to life. To delight fans from all over the world, the Porsche Museum opened in 1976 within the grounds of the Zuffenhausen plant.
